On behalf of Federación Latinoamericana de la Industria Farmacéutica, A.C. hereinafter refer to as FIFARMA, welcome to the meeting or conference and thank you for your participation in it.

FIFARMA is a not-for-profit organization intended to serve as a forum for health education within Latin America (LATAM).

FIFARMA is not organized to and may not play any role in the competitive decisions of its members or their employees, nor in any way restrict competition among members or potential members.

It is the policy of FIFARMA , and it is the responsibility of every member, speaker, panelist, discussion group leader and participant in the meeting, to comply in all respects with antitrust laws and regulations.

Presentations and conversations involving the following matters, should always be avoided, even in private settings, and may not be tolerated in connection with any FIFARMA's meeting or activity.

- a) Prices and price levels; cost of operations, supplies, labor or services
- b) Terms of sale including discounts, credit arrangements, profit margins and mark ups;
- c) Regulate production; limitations on the nature of business carried on or products or services.
- d) Allocate markets, customers and/or territories;
- e) Negotiation of conditions in public bids;
- f) Encourage boycotts against one or more companies, entity or institution;
- g) Foster unfair trade practices
- h) Assist monopolization
- i) Predicted research and development by a company, entity or institution

Taking into consideration that FIFARMA is a Mexican association we will mainly follow Mexican Antitrust Law and Regulations but we ask that you familiarize yourself with the antitrust law and regulations in your country.

Please read the Antitrust Compliance Policy document attached and return a signed copy of the same to FIFARMA at the end of the sessions.

Questions concerning antitrust or other laws or regulations connected to FIFARMA activities please do not hesitate to contact our General Counsel, María Teresa Cantú Reus, at (52) 5554881940. Mobile (52) 1 5554062645 tcantu@crplaw.com.mx.

We thank you again for your help in ensuring that we have a successful, antitrust compliant meeting.

I have read and understand the foregoing information, and in my role as member, meeting speaker, facilitator, moderator, panelist, or participant I will abide by the above policy and will not facilitate a discussion that could violate antitrust laws.
